

Hanes-Lineberry has been honored to service the community since 1919, assisting and caring for families at a difficult time in their life. We offer personalized funeral and cremation services, pre-planning, grief counseling, and aftercare services.

As a part of the Dignity Network we are nationally recognized and locally operated. Dignity is the leader in funeral services with approximately 2000 funeral homes and cemeteries across the nation. Your local providers are Hanes-Lineberry Funeral Homes with three locations to serve you in Greensboro, Westminster Gardens Cemetery, Guilford Memorial Park and National Cremation Service. Our directors are available to lead educational discussions to church, community, civic and school groups
